Walking with Wanda!

Did you know a group walks each morning (Mon-Fri) from 7:15-7:45 a.m. around the rally grounds? If you are looking for a little exercise and would like to meet some new WIT friends meet at WIT Singles head of row (A7). Wanda Wendt, a No-Tow Bagos member, welcomes anyone who would like to join the group for a walk around the grounds and a morning chat.

Register your teams this afternoon!

If you haven't done so already, today from 1-3 p.m. is the time to register for all tournaments including our first-ever Hillbilly Moonshine Run! Grab a friend or two and stop down at the tent to register for all contests – beanbag baseball teams, bocci ball, snake toss, and washer toss too!

Need a space to gather friends?

Don't forget about our Special Events Tent located down at the Red Barn. Sign-up sheets are located on the board outside the tent. This tent is for everyone so please sign-up when you would like to reserve space for your crafting, card playing, whitlin' or pickin' friends. We know our favorite WIT "Pickers" will be down there Jammin a time or two so be sure to just stop in when you have a chance and listen a while.

Opening Ceremonies

Get a good seat down at the amphitheater and enjoy entertainment by Jon Eric starting at 6:30 p.m. The Parade and Opening Events will be begin at 7 p.m. Note: if you are in the parade, lineup begins at 6:40 p.m. Can't wait to see this year's Hillbilly Jamboree parade!

Sneak Preview of 2012 products TONIGHT!

Beginning 10 minutes after Opening Ceremonies, stop over to the product display in Section C, Rows 12-13 to check out all our new Winnebago, Itasca and Era products. There are definitely some head-turning features you must see to believe! The display will be open daily throughout rally week.
